SANDOVAL COUNTY OFFICERS AFTER OLIVER COLLIER

Make Trip to Farmington to Get Man Wanted in Jemez Country for Horse Stealing Charge.

The Durango Democrat which reached Albuquerque today says: Undersheriff Lucero and Deputy Sheriff Garcia of Sandoval county, N. M., went down on the Farmington train to Aztec yesterday noon to pick up Oliver Collier, whom it was expected would be released on bond yesterday. Collier has been held in the Aztec jail for two or three months on the charge of horse stealing and it is said that he had arranged to give bond. So soon as he is given his liberty there he will be taken to Sandoval county to answer to charges made against him there. His brother, who recently left here about the same time that a couple of horses disappeared from a ranch south of town, and who was picked up on the request of Sheriff Fassminder in New Mexico, and later turned loose because he did not have the stolen horses, is reported to have again been arrested for horse-stealing there.

GOVERNOR WENT TO DURANGO HOSPITAL

That Governor McDonald's recent illness which delayed his visit to the San Juan county fairs was more serious than at first reported is indicated from the following paragraph from the Durango Democrat of Tuesday: The condition of Governor McDonald of New Mexico who is a patient at the Oberlin hospital, was so much improved yesterday that the governor wanted to leave for home this morning. But Dr. Oberlin decided another day's rest would do him good, and the present plans are for Governor McDonald to leave tomorrow morning. Mr. McDonald still is a guest at the Stratter hotel here.

WOMAN COULD HARDLY STAND Because of Terrible Backache. Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I suffered from displacement and inflammation, and had such pains in my sides, and terrible backache so that I could hardly stand. I took six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I can do any amount of work, sleep good, eat good, and don't have a bit of trouble. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to every suffering woman."—Mrs. HARRY FISHER, 1642 Junata Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Another Woman's Case.

Providence, R. I.—"I cannot speak too highly of your Vegetable Compound as it has done wonders for me and I would not be without it. I had a displacement, bearing down, and backache, until I could hardly stand and was thoroughly run down when I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helped me and I am in the best of health at present. I work in a factory all day long besides doing my housework so you can see what it has done for me. I give you permission to publish my name and I speak of your Vegetable Compound to many of my friends."—Mrs. ABRAHAM LAWSON, 126 Lippitt St., Providence, R. I.

Danger Signals to Women

are what one physician called backache, headache, nervousness, and the blues. In many cases they are symptoms of some female derangement or an inflammatory, ulcerative condition, which may be overcome by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Thousands of American women willingly testify to its virtue.

CRIST WILL TAKE INDIAN JOB IF SALARY IS RAISED

Santa Fe, N. M., Sept. 17.—From reports received in Santa Fe there are now at least six or seven lawyers in New Mexico, including a young attorney from Roswell, seeking to succeed Francis C. Wilson as United States attorney for the Pueblo Indians. The position pays $1200 a year salary with an allowance of $500 for expense. Although various candidates have been mentioned in the past few days, friends of Attorney J. H. Crist, of Santa Fe, are emphatic in declaring that Mr. Crist can have the job if he will accept it. Mr. Crist has repeatedly declared that he is not making a fight to get the job but some of his friends today expressed the opinion that with an assurance that the department of the interior will make efforts to get the salary raised, Mr. Crist will likely accept it. It is rumored that A. A. Jones and H. H. Ferguson are for Mr. Crist and it is also rumored that J. H. Paxton, chairman of the Democratic state central committee has declined to endorse any of the half dozen candidates who prefer to see themselves named in place of Mr. Crist. From all reports no news has been received from Washington "for publication" and if a candidate has finally been settled upon, no official information is to be given out today.

SOME REPUBLICAN MISFORTUNES

(Continued News.) The political parties of New Mexico have lined up and declared before the people their political beliefs and disabilities, so that from the platforms the independent voter, the salvation of all political divisions, can form his judgment. The action of the Republican state convention at Santa Fe was a surprise to the state, even though it was known that the same old bosses, once repudiated by the people, were to be in control of that gathering, and the bosses, with little or no regard for intelligent opinion, were likely to do almost anything to forward their own plans. The first surprise came with the nomination of Mr. Hernandez for congress, a nice, polite gentleman without one single qualification for the position. The candidate is not fitted for congress either by experience, education or inclination, and his nomination was the result of two elements working along different lines. One Republican faction, headed by Carson, did not desire a winning nomination made, because a winning against Ferguson this year would be the logical Republican candidate for senator two years from now, and Carson wants to be that candidate. Another faction was insisting upon the nomination of a Spanish-American for one of the offices, and as Williams made an awful lot of noise about delivering a solid railroad vote in case he was nominated, the bosses were afraid to throw him over. As the most satisfactory compromise they made the nominations they did, and have a ticket unsatisfactory even to themselves. The Brotherhood of American Yeomen will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in I. O. O. F. hall.

Secretary of State Lucero returned from the San Juan today filled with enthusiasm over the development and fine crops in that section of the state. He left for Albuquerque at once.

University Gets $1300. In the monthly distribution of funds from August taxes and other sources today, to state institutions, the University of New Mexico from a total of $23,000 received $1339.

Two Requisitions Issued. Acting Governor de Baca has honored requisitions for Rucos Jones, now at Roswell, wanted in Perry county, Texas, for defacing brands, and for Lloyd Jones, held at Silver City and wanted in Texas on a charge of seduction.

Two Spans of Bridge Complete. Assistant State Engineer Johnson who returned here today from an inspection of the new bridge over the Rio Puerco reports two spans of the bridge complete and expects the finished structure within a few weeks.

The purpose of this conference is to lay before the president in brief terms the present situation of the railroads of the United States—530,000 miles of great national highways. That the case of the railroads deserves sympathetic treatment arises from the fact that, although privately owned, their property is devoted to public service. The industrial health of the country depends upon an adequate railroad service; such service cannot be rendered, and proper response to public needs cannot be made unless the financial soundness of the railroads is maintained. The credit of the railroads, seriously impaired, as we believe, before the war started, is now confronted by an emergency of a magnitude without parallel in history. To understand the full import of the existing crisis, it is necessary to consider briefly the antecedent conditions. The purpose here is not to complain but to point out the one paramount fact that by reason of legislation and regulation by the federal government and the forty-eight states, acting independently of each other as well as through the action of a strong public opinion, railroad expenses in recent years have vastly increased. No criticism is here made of the general theory of governmental regulation, but on the other hand, to insist that the burden of expense created thereby, however desirable may have been the expenditures which have been

THE RAILROADS' APPEAL TO PRESIDENT WILSON

A committee of railroad executives last week called on the president of the United States at the White House. The committee consisted of Mr. A. J. Easting, president, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway company; Mr. Fairfax Harrison, president, Southern Railway company; Mr. Hale Holden, president, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad company; Mr. Samuel Rea, president, the Pennsylvania Railroad company; Mr. E. P. Ripley, president, Atchafalaya, Topoka & Santa Fe railway; Mr. Frank Trumbull, chairman, Chesapeake & Ohio railway and Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway company; Mr. Daniel Willard, president, Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company. Mr. Trumbull, on behalf of the committee, presented the following memorandum to the president: The purpose of this conference is to lay before the president in brief terms the present situation of the railroads of the United States—530,000 miles of great national highways. That the case of the railroads deserves sympathetic treatment arises from the fact that, although privately owned, their property is devoted to public service. HELPLESS AS BABY

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emery, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work."

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16. Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them. If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too. Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it. Write to: Chattanooga Medicine Co., Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn.
